Valiente were the favourites to win the first semi-final of Cartier Queen's Cup 2018. But Juan Britos of Park Place, the top scorer of the tournament coming into the semifinal, had other ideas. He fired through 4 goals and made some blistering runs down the ground to be awarded the Most Valuable Player award.

The game ended with a scoreline of 11-9 in Park Place's favour, who booked a place in their first ever Cartier Queen's Cup final. Minchatos Mesquite, played by Hilario Ulloa of Park Place, was the Best Playing Pony of the match.

124th Open de Paris Engel and Volkers

The third round Paris Open 2018 was played at the Polo de Paris this past weekend. La Concepcion Polo booked their place in the final by winning both of their games this week. They are undefeated so far in the tournament with 4 wins in as many games.

Saint Mesme, despite sharing equal points with three other teams, stand 2nd owing to their large goal difference. The Blacks and Blues registered a thrashing win of 9-4 over Le Pommeray on Saturday, before going down against La Concepcion Polo the following day with a score of 5-6. Santa Clara, on the other hand, are eliminated from the race to final having lost all of their games so far.

Petworth 12 Goal Cup 2018

Cowdray Park hosted the Petworth 12 Goal Cup 2018, featuring three teams River, Hickstead, Gardenvale. With every team playing one game with each of the opponents and winning one game each, Hickstead and Gardenvale went into the final ahead on goal difference.

Gardenvale held onto their nerve in the tight game, beating Hickstead 6 - 4.5 to win the title.

Austrian Open 2018

Poloclub Schloss Ebreichsdorf flagged off the 2018 edition of the Austria Open, the highlight of the Austrian polo season, on June 15, Friday. Five 8-10 goal formations lined up to face off each of their opponents once, before playing the final on June 24.

Polka Dots: A Timeless Fashion Trend

The history of Polka Dots is not certain and clear. Traditionally, they were associated with the attires of flamenco dancers. But, apart from it, there were areas where its presence was noticeable. However, some connect it with iconic fashion designer Carolina Herrera, as she used polka dots in most dresses in late 1980s and early 1990s. Whatever the history is, we just can't ignore the fact that polka dots have become a classic evergreen fashion trend which never unpleases its wearer.
