ROYAL WINDSOR CUP 2018

The oldest tournament at the Guards Polo Club, first played in 1955, is UK's most coveted as far as the 15-goal polo is concerned. Featuring a large number of teams, it is played over a period of around three weeks.

Its final marks a highlighting event in the British polo calendar. In attendance are HM The Queen and HRH The Duke of Edinburgh, who also holds the post of club's President. Her Majesty presents the winning team with the prestigious Royal Windsor Cup trophy.

The day and the tournament alike culminate with a parade show by the British Driving Society, who put an absolute spectacle to mark the end of this British polo extravaganza.
